Mike Gibbs at Virginia Fibre woodyard in Riverville.

Gibbs Of Virginia Fibre Working With Loggers In Area

Since February of this year, Virginia Fibre Corporation has had Area Forester Mike Gibbs busy in wood procurement in Appomattox, Charlotte and Prince Edward Counties. Gibbs is responsible for securing a steady supply of pine and hardwood pulpwood for Virginia Fibre's new containerboard manufacturing facility in Riverville from wood producers and loggers in this area. The plant, soon to be in full production, will supply corrugating medium to container manufacturers in major markets in this country and abroad.

Gibbs, a bachelor, has settled in Appomattox. Prior to joining the wood procurement team at Virginia Fibre, he was an Area Forester for Georgia-Pacific Corp. in Ahoskie, N.C. He hails from Arlington, Virginia, and earned his B.S. degree in Forest Management at Virginia Tech, Class of '72.

Electric Companies-Governmental Entities Set Public Hearing

The Special Committee to Study the Relationship Between Electric Companies and Governmental Entities in Virginia is holding its first public hearing in House Room 4 of the State Capitol, Thursday, July 17, 1975, at 9:30 a.m.

The 1975 Session of the General Assembly enacted legislation which required the Governor to appoint a special committee to recommend the most fair and equitable method of establishing reasonable rates charged by electric companies and paid by institutions and agencies of federal, state and local governments. The Special Committee intends to make a comprehensive survey of (1) schedules of rates and contracts for service furnished by electric companies to customers in the public and private sector, (2) the elements and criteria which should be followed in establishing fair and equitable rates to governmental entities and (3) the advantages and disadvantages of having electric rates to governmental entities regulated by the State Corporation Commission.

Those who wish to present testimony or who desire further information should contact L. Willis Robertson, Jr. or (Mrs.) Joanne S. Palmore at the above address or by calling (804) 770-3591.

Those persons who intend to appear before the Committee are also requested to limit their presentations to ten minutes. Representatives of local government organizations or associations, State government, federal government and the public utilities involved may request an extension of time from the Chairman.

Miss Appomattox Dixie Youth Queen Named

On Wednesday evening, July 2, 1975 Miss Dawn Rosser was crowned "Miss Appomattox Dixie Youth Queen" by Fred Weakley, President of the Appomattox Youth Association, at the WOW ballfield.

In the photo above, left to right, the contestants with their escorts are shown: Debbie Edmonds, 1974 Dixie Youth Queen, with escort Clark McGuire; Patty Stratton with escort Richard Guill; Angie Ferguson with escort J. R. Harvey; Dawn Rosser, 1975 Miss Dixie Youth Queen being crowned by Fred Weakley standing in back, with escort Leonard McCormick; Tammy Bates with escort Steve Mayberry; Gina Adams with escort Ricky Chandler; and Joan Marie Robertson with escort Frankie McCormick.

Miss Rosser will compete for the title of Miss Virginia Dixie Youth Queen at Keysville in July of this year. Representing the Giant Team, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rosser of Appomattox.

Local Rescue Squad Answers 41 Calls In Month Of June

During the month of June, 1975 the volunteer members of the Appomattox County Rescue Squad responded to a total of 41 emergency calls. There were three auto wrecks in which seven persons were given first aid and carried on for further treatment and there were two motorcycle accidents with two persons being treated. Oxygen was administered to seven persons. In answering the 41 calls, members of the rescue squad spent 149¾ manhours and travelled a total of 1,659 miles.

A breakdown of the calls is as follows: broken bones, 2; motorcycle accidents, 2; wrecks, 4; heart attacks, 4; dead on arrival, 4; strokes, 2; Illnesses, 7; remove glass from foot,1; cuts, 2; kidney stones 1; exhaustion, 1; over dose, 1; back pain, 1; burns, 1; breathing difficulty, 1; bee sting reaction, 1; falls, 2; 3 persons were treated when a house trailer turned over due to high winds (minor injuries); lawn mower accident, 1; and chest pains, 2.

Rabies Clinic Set For July 10

A Rabies Clinic will be held at the Firehouse at the Appomattox Town Municipal Building on Thursday, July 10, 1975 from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m.

Bloodmobile Visit Set For July 29

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will make its first visit of the fiscal year to Appomattox on Tuesday, July 29. The visit, as usual will be held at Liberty Baptist Church from noon until 6 p.m. and the quota has been set at 102 units of blood.

The Junior Woman's Club sponsors the blood program in Appomattox County and they continue to do a fine job.

Rev. Earnie Lucas is Chairman of the Blood Program assisted by Mrs. Lucy Harvey and Mrs. Mary Katherine Whitehead,representative from the Junior Woman's Club.

A nursery is provided at all visits for parents with small children who wish to donate blood . . . and without the donors there could be no blood program in our county.

Cannery Is Rendering Service To Community

The Appomattox Community Cannery opened July 1, 1975 and over 2,000 cans of foods were processed opening day. Through its first four working days, the cannery has processed approximately 4,800 cans of foods as the facilities have been utilized by 118 people in the county.

In the above photos, Rev. Cecil Dalton and his daughter are seen on the left sealing their cans in preparation of being cooked. On the right, (left to right), Priscilla Harris, Demple Kent, Madeline Rose, L. C. Moore, and Helen McCormick are waiting for their products to cool off before taking them home.

The busy Appomattox Cannery finished second in the state last year in number of canned products processed with a total surpassing 110,000.

Governor Appoints Council Member

Richard B. Carter, Sr.

Mr. Richard Burke Carter, Sr., of Appomattox, Virginia, has been appointed by Governor Mills Godwin as a member of the State Advisory Council on Vocational Education. This Council was created by the United States Congress and is mandated to advise state agencies and officials on the operation of vocational education programs, make recommendations concerning such programs, and make annual evaluation reports to the State Board of Education and the Commissioner of Education.

Mr. Carter received a B.S. and M.S. from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, where he is now enrolled in their doctoral program. Mr. Carter is currently serving Appomattox County as Director of Vocational Education.

USDA Seeks Comments On 1976 Feed Grain & Wheat Programs Proposals

The U. S. Department of Agriculture recently called for comments on its proposed determination for the 1976 feed grain and wheat programs.

The Secretary of Agriculture proposes to make determination and issue regulations relative to:

The national feed grain allotment. The Secretary announced on April 10 that the 1976 wheat allotment would be 61.6 million acres. (The Secretary is required to announce the wheat allotment by April 15 of each year for the crop to be harvested in the next calendar year. For feed grains the determination for the 1976 crops must be announced by December 31, 1975.)

Whether there should be a set aside requirement for feed grains and wheat for the 1976 crops and, if so, the extent of such requirement.

Whether there should be a provision for additional diversion for the 1976 crops and, if so, the extent of such diversion and payment rate therefor.

The loan rate for the 1976 crop of feed grains and wheat, including commodity eligibility, storage requirements and loan maturity dates.

Other related provisions necessary to carry out the loan and purchase program and the set aside program.

Prior to making the determinations, consideration will be given to any written comments received by the Director, Grain, Oilseeds and Cotton Division, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250, not later than August 4 which is 30 days after publication of this announcement in the Federal Register on July 3.

All written submissions will be made available for public inspection at the Office of the Director, Room 5741, Agriculture Department's South Building, during regular business hours, 8:15 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Stated Meeting Set For Monroe Lodge

A Stated Meeting will be held at Monroe Masonic Lodge 301 A.F. & A.M. on Monday, July 14, 1975 at 8 p.m. for the dispatch of business, according to Cliff Rhodenizer, W.M.

Master Masons are invited to attend this meeting.

When the dust settles, a bull rider hopes to still be aboard and hearing the welcome horn to signal a completed eight second ride, possibly prize money will come his way if he has turned in one of the best rides at the rodeo to be sponsored by the Appomattox County Jaycees on Saturday night and Sunday afternoon. John Clark, shown above, is a 1964 World Champion All-Around Cowboy and 1965 World Champion Bull Rider. He is from Clarksville, Texas.

Jaycee Sponsored Rodeo Set For Saturday And Sunday

The Appomattox County Jaycees will sponsor a Rodeo this week end at the Town Ball Park. The Diamond World Championship Rodeo slated to begin at 8 p.m. on Saturday night, July 12, with the second show set for 2 p.m. on Sunday, July 13, has been given official approval by the International Rodeo Association making it a truly professional event.

The rodeo will attract IRA cowboys and cowgirls from several states and all of them will be competing for $10,000 in prize money and championship points. Professional cowboys and cowgirls can win points toward a championship in the IRA only by competing at sanctioned IRA rodeos.

The championship event will feature Bareback Riding, Calf Roping, Ladies Barrel Racing, Saddle Brone Riding, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping and Wild Brahma Bull Riding.

Members of the Jaycees have advance tickets on sale - adults, $3.00 and children, $2.00. At the gate, tickets will be $4.00 for adults and $3.00 for children.

The Appomattox Jaycees along wit the Diamond World Championship Rodeo have geared their rodeo for good clean family entertainment.
